Discount buying group adds corporate travel

The discount buying group Mayfair Quarters has branched out with the launch of Mayfair Quarters Travel.

Founded in 2008, the London-based company caters to the needs of financial and professional services companies and now offers a dedicated booking service incorporating all ticketing and travel needs for business.

Clients will have access to the company's negotiated airline and hotel discounts, including corporate fares negotiated with British Airways at the inception of Mayfair Quarters.

"We are delighted to announce the launch of Mayfair Quarters Travel," says managing director, Lindsey Parslow.

"This is a bespoke addition to our catalogue of high quality professional office services we provide to all of our clients. We look forward to working with existing and new clients to offer them the very best in business."

The company has over 350 clients within the UK, predominantly small businesses within the financial and professional services sectors.
